He decided to leave Liozna and become a wanderer, until he arrived in the town of Selesz, in Hungary, where he then settled for the remainder of his days. After his passing, many newborns in Selesz were given the name of Boruch. (Days of Chabad)

Tishrei 11/September 29/Tuesday
The day called “G-tt’s Nomen” (“HaShem’s Name”). There’s a custom to rise early to Shacharis today (so the Accuser can’t accuse us of inconsistency in our resolve to do Teshuvah) (Alter Rebbe’s Shulchan Aruch Orach Chaim: 642)

On the day day after Yom Kippur, Moshe Rabbeinu gathered all the Jews together to request contributions for the Mishkan (Shemos 31:18, Rashi), taught the laws of Shabbos, (Shemos 35:1, Rashi) and opened the first judicial session. (Shemos 18:13-23, Rashi)

The Alter Rebbe brings his grandson, the Tzemach Tzedek, to Cheder for the first time.

After the passing of his daughter, Rebbitzin Devorah Leah (see Tishrei 3), the Alter Rebbe took over the care of her little son, strongly focusing on his education.

After davening the Alter Rebbe had the Tzemach Tzedek wrapped in a Tallis. He took his grandson and along with other members of the family and many Chassidim they went to the gravesite of Rebbitzin Devorah Leah. There the Alter Rebbe said: “Mazel Tov! Devorah Leah, daughter of Shterna. Today I am bringing your son, Menachem Mendel, son of Devorah Leah, into the world of Torah. Come bless him, that just as he has entered into a life of Torah, so may he come to chuppah, good deeds and length of days.”

After this, all present said “Amen.”

Then the child was taken to Shul where Reb Avraham, the melamed, taught him the first parsha of Sefer Vayikra. When the child asked his grandfather why the Aleph in Vayikra is small, the Alter Rebbe answered him and said that it corresponds to Moshe Rabeinu who was very humble. (see Likutei Sichos, volume 17, Parsha Vayikra)

Tishrei 12/September 30/Wednesday

Of Rabbi Avraham's holiness, the Tzemach Tzedek remarked: "When 'The Malach' came to the blessing Yotzer Ohr, so great was his fervor that one could light a sliver of wood by its fire! And this is no exaggeration,"

The Alter Rebbe named one of his sons Avraham after "The Malach," later the name Chaim was added to this son. (See Sefer Hamomarim of the Friediker Rebbe p. 90)

Tishrei 13/October 1/Thursday

Yartzeit of our holy Master and Teacher, R. Shmuel, "the Rebbe MaHaRaSh", 5643 (1882). "...His life and work is best summarized by his saying, "The world says if you can't go under an obstacle, you have to go over, and I say —go over in the first place." The simple meaning of this is that in Torah and Mitzvos we have to "go over in the first place": not make calculations, and when that's not enough, and you have to go above measure and limit, you go "over" — the Rebbe MaHaRaSh said "go over in the first place", in a way that's above calculations and limits." (Sichah, Tishrei 13, 5739).

Yartzeit of R. Akiva Eiger, outstanding Talmudic authority, 5598 (1837). The Mitteler Rebbe was close with him, and said for him the Maamar, "Al Tatzter Es Moav." (Beis Rebbe, Vol. II, P. 7)

First Night of Rosh Hashanah

Tishrei 1, September 18, Friday Night

“...He who davens as Chazan for the Yomim Noraim should review the Tefillos, especially the Piyutim, to know at least the meaning of the words. Even if he did so a year ago, he should do so every year before going to the Amud as Chazan.” (Likutei Sichos Vol 19, p. 462)

Before Maariv we say Tehillim.

“...The Alter Rebbe would be involved in saying Tehillim from after Minchah Erev Rosh Hashanah until after Maariv of the Second Night of Rosh Hashanah.” (Sefer Hasichos 5702, p. 2)

“...In the two days of Rosh Hashanah from an hour before Minchah Erev Rosh Hashanah until Maariv Motzei Yom Tov, every one should be involved in saying Tehillim, for in these days we must be careful in the extreme about empty conversation, to minimize sleep and maximize prayer and supplications from the depths of the heart and in every available moment say Tehillim. Those who smoke the rest of the year as well as on Yom Tov do not do so now.” (Letter of the previous Lubavitcher Rebbe, 5697, Erev Rosh Hashana, 5750)

“...The Tzemach Tzedek said, Today we must prepare ourselves to receive our Father, our King. A father loves a clean, pure heart; a king loves a clean garment. Silver and gold (love and fear), don't rust, only tarnish and they can be cleaned. This is the service of Rosh Hashanah to be sure you have a pure heart and a clean garment...” (Sichah Erev Rosh Hashanah 5705 pg. 1)

We begin Maariv with “Mizmor L'Dovid,” and add Shabbos inserts in the Amidah.

In Kaddish during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, we say “Oseh Ha-Shalom”.

During Rosh Hashanah we need to be careful when we daven Amidah as there are many insertions—follow your Machzor carefully. We say “HaMelech Hakadosh” instead of “HaKel Hakadosh” If you said Hakel Hakadosh and realized immediately that you erred (in the time it takes to say “Shalom Alecha Rebbe”) you can immediately say “HaMelech Hakadosh.” If you don't realize immediately, or began the next Brachah, repeat the Amidah, even if you finished it.

“...(The Rebbe RaShaB said) the vessel for material blessings for the whole year is through two things: Kavanah in saying L'Dovid Mizmor the night of Rosh Hashanah, and extra joy in the Torah on Simchas Torah.” (Sichah, Sukos, 5687)

L'shanah Tovah

After Maariv we wish each other “Lishanah Tovah Tikaseiv V'tichaseim” (to a man) or “Lishanah Tovah Tikaseivi V'tichaseimi” (to a woman).

On the first night of Rosh Hashanah after Maariv, the Rebbe RaShaB would say L'shanah Tovah to everyone present. On his way home from Shul, he said L'shanah Tovah to every person, even to very young children. (Sichos 5704)

The Tzemach Tzedek said: Two angels escort a person. They listen to the L'shanah Tovah, he says to his friend with a pure heart; they go up to heaven and say good tidings and pray that the person have a good year. This causes HaShem to accept His coronation. (Sefer Hasichos 5705)

“...The Rebbe MaHaRaSh said, “Hundreds of angels look forward on Rosh Hashanah for a Jew to say a good word about his friend, because HaShem desires to hear the praise of Israel more than the prayers of the righteous” (Addenda to Hayom Yom, No. 18)

“Sholom Aleichem,” “Eishes Chayil,” “Mizmor L'Dovid,” “Askinu Seudosoh” are recited quietly before reciting the Kiddush for Rosh Hashanah. Say Kiddush for Rosh Hashanah aloud beginning with “Yom Hashishi...” and include the Shabbos inserts. Anyone who has made the brocha Shehechyanu at candle lighting does not repeat it during Kiddush.

We dip the Challah three times in honey instead of salt. We put salt on the table as usual. (Many have the custom to dip Challah in salt during the meal.) This applies any time we use honey.

Yom Tov Meal

After Hamotzi we dip a sweet apple in honey three times, say the Brachah “Borei Pri Ha-etz” followed by “Yehi Ratzon” (see Siddur) and eat it.

It's customary to eat the head of a fish, (or ram, to commemorate Akeidas Yitzchak). We eat pomegranates, carrots, meat and sweet foods. We do not say a “Yehi Ratzon” for these traditional foods.

In Birkas Hamazon add “Retzei” “Yaaleh V'yavo” and “Harachaman hu yanchileinu leyom shekulo tov”, and “Harachaman hu yechadesh aleinu es hashonah hazos letovah u'levrochah.”

If you forget “Yaaleh V'yavo” at night, repeat Birkas Hamazon. During the day, you do not have to. If you remember before the fourth Brochah (see Sidur)

In Birkas Hamazon we say “Oseh Shalom”, not “HaShalom”.

First Day of Rosh Hashanah Tishrei 1, September 19, Shabbos

Since it is Shabbos we do not blow Shofar and the Shofar is Muktzeh.

We don't wear a kittel on Rosh Hashanah.

Throughout Aseres Yimei Teshuvah we say “Shir Hamalos” (Tehillim: 130) after Yishtabach before Borchu.

Since Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are days of judgment, we don't say Hallel.

We daven Musaf for Rosh Hashanah with Shabbos inserts.

Kiddush by day we say "Mizmor L'Dovid" until after "Al Ken" quietly and "Tiku Bachodesh" we say aloud.

It is not proper to sleep on Rosh Hashanah by day. The two days of Rosh Hashanah should be devoted to Prayer, Torah Study, and Tehillim.

After Minchah on the first day we don't do Tashlich since it is Shabbos. Tashlich is done on the second day.

Second Night of Rosh Hashanah
Tishrei 2, September 19, Motzoei Shabbos

No preparations for the second day of Yom Tov may be done before nightfall.

Light candles from a pre-existing flame and says the Brachos "Lehadlik Ner Shel Yom Hazikaron" and "Shehechyanu".

A lady who doesn't daven Maariv must say "Baruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh Likodesh" before lighting candles, or doing any work permitted on Yom Tov.

We say Shemoneh Esrei for Rosh Hashanah with Vitodiyeinu. (If you forget it, don't repeat Shmoneh Esrei; just don't do any work permitted on Yom Tov until you say "Baruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh Likodesh").

Since Shabbos is over we have to make Havdalah in Kiddush. The correct order to make Kiddush when Yom Tov follows Shabbos is as follows:

"YaKNeHaZ" is an easy way to remember the order:

Yayen (wine) 'Borei Pri Hagofen'

Kiddush - 'Mekadesh Yisrael V'yom Hazikoron'

Ner - 'Borei Meorei Ha'eish' (Look at the candles when you say this one but not at your fingers)

Havdalah - 'Hamavdil Bein Kodesh L'kodesh'

Z'man - 'Shehechyanu'

Since there is a view that we don't say Shehechyanu the second day, the custom is to have a new fruit on the table, or wear a new garment, at candle-lighting and Kiddush. (when you say Shehechyanu.) If you don't have them, you still say it. We eat the new fruit before washing for Challah.

"...On the Second Night of Rosh Hashanah those who eat a Kizayis of the new fruit (before washing for the meal) should say a Brachah Achronah over the fruit, but not over the wine." (Sefer Hashichos, Rosh Hashanah Second Night, 5705)

During the Rosh Hashanah meal the Rebbe barely spoke. As during the other

After Tishrei 5770 the Chabad Chodesh will be available year-round online at

ChabadofLA.com

Please send us your email address so we can be in touch with you!

Yom Tov meals, those present would sing niggunim, usually the niggun Gimel Tenuos, and at times, also Reb Michele Zlotchover's niggun.

"...They saw the Rebbe the Tzemach Tzedek on the second night of Rosh Hashanah saying Tehillim all night, his holy eyes flowed with tears." (Sefer Hasi-chos 5705)

Second Day of Rosh Hashanah Tishrei 2, September 20, Sunday

It was the previous Rebbe's custom to say Yizkor quietly to himself after the Haftarah on the second day of Rosh Hashanah. He told me this knowing that I would eventually publicize it. I am not going to establish a new custom; let everyone do as he feels proper. (Sichah, Tishrei 6, 5743)

Tekias Shofar

After Kriyas HaTorah, and Maftir we prepare for Shofar blowing. The Ba'al Tokeah says the Brochos with the intention that he is saying the Brochos and blowing the Shofar for all listening. We have in mind, when hearing the Brocha and the blowing of the Shofar that we are fulfilling the Mitzvah through him. Listen very carefully to the Brochos, keep in mind to fulfill the Mitzvah. Don't answer "Baruch Hu Uvaruch Shmo" (Do say "Amen"). Since the Brachos apply to the Tekios of the Amidah, we may not talk from this point until after the Shofar blowing after the Musaf repetition (unless it directly pertains to Shofar or Davening). We should make sure that children are quiet.

Our custom is not to announce the Tekios, rather to point to them for the Ba'al Tokeah.

We say the "Yehi Ratzon" after the Tekios, as does the Baal Tekiah.

"According to the practices of Kaballah, after the Tekios, the Baal Tekiah should go to his place and turn to face the Congregation and they should look at him". (Kuntres Limud Hachassidus, p. 11)

We blow the Shofar three times in the silent Amidah three times in the Repetition, and in the Kaddish after Mussaf. If you're in the middle of the Amidah when the Shofar is blown, stop, listen and then continue davening. After Davening we blow another thirty.

A Baal Tekiah (and those who blow Shofar on Mivtzaim) should be well versed in the laws of Shofar.

If you heard the Shofar, you may say the Brachos for others and blow for them, but it's better that they say the Brachos. If you're blowing Shofar for women, THEY must say the Brachos.

"...In 5640 (1880), the Rebbe MaHaRaSh gave a message to the Chassidim, through R. Levi'k the Gabai: "That which is explained in Chassidus that the concept of Shofar is that we call out "Father, Father!", the main emphasis isn't on the "Father", but on the one calling out". It was a tumultuous Rosh Hashanah". (Addenda to Hayom Yom)

Tashlich

After Minchah we go to a river with fish (as a sign that we should multiply like fish) for Tashlich. After Tashlich, shake the corners of your Tallis Katan. If you can't go on Rosh Hashanah you may go throughout Aseres Yimei Teshuvah.

"...I suggest everybody connect the hours of Rosh Hashanah with the beginning of Motzoei Rosh Hashanah in the study of Chassidus..." (Letter of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, of blessed memory, Sefer Haminhagim, p. 57)

We add Atah Chonantanu in the Amidah of Maariv. If you forget, don't repeat the Amidah, but say "Baruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh Lichol". Women who don't daven Maariv must say Baruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh Lichol before they can do any work.

Allow us to Make Your Dreams Come TRUE!!!

During Aseres Yimei Teshuvah add “Zochreinu”, “Mi Kamocha” “Uchsov” and “B’Sefer Chaim” in the Amidah. If you forget, don’t repeat the Amidah.

We say “HaMelech Hakadosh” instead of “HaKel HaKadosh” and “HaMelech Hamishpot” instead of “Melech Oheiv Tzedakah Umishpat.” If you realize immediately that you erred (in the time it takes to say “Shalom Alecha Rebbe”) you can immediately say “HaMelech Hakadosh” (or “HaMelech Hamishpot”). If at “HaMelech Hakadosh” you don’t realize immediately, or began the next Brachah, repeat the Amidah, even if you finished it.

Havdalah is said, but no Besomim or candles are used.

Aseres Yimei Teshuvah

Add Aseres Yimei Teshuvah insertions in the Amidah.

“...Though repentance and calling out to HaShem are effective all year, during the Ten Days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur they are more effective and are accepted immediately, as it says (Yishayahu 55:6) “Seek HaShem when He is to be found.” (Rambam, Hilchos Teshuvah, 2:1)

We say “Avinu Malkeinu” at Shacharis and Minchah all of the Aseres Yimei Teshuvah (unless we aren’t saying Tachanun).

During these days, we’re more scrupulous than usual, as we ask HaShem to deal with us with special kindness. One who eats non-Pas Yisroel during the year should be careful to eat only Pas Yisroel.

Tzom Gedaliah

Tishrei 3, September 21, Monday

All able men and women fast; pregnant or nursing women don’t.

The Chazan adds Aneinu in the repeated Amidah. We say Slichos and Avinu Malkeinu and read the Torah. Only those fasting have Aliyos. At Minchah we read the Torah and Haftorah before the Amidah. In the Amidah, those fasting say Aneinu in Shema Koleinu. If you forget it, don’t repeat the Amidah. We say Tachanun and Avinu Malkeinu.

Shabbos Shuva

Tishrei 8, September 26

It was customary in the household of the Rebbeim to light a 24 hour candle on Erev Shabbos called the Teshuva light.

This Shabbos is “Shabbos Teshuvah” (or “Shuva”, based on its Haftorah “Shuva Yisroel”).

In “Magen Avos” say “HaMelech Hakadosh”, instead of “HaKel Hakadosh”.

We don’t say “Avinu Malkeinu” on Shabbos.

We don’t say “Viyehi Noam” and “Atah Kadosh” in Maariv on Motzei Shabbos. (It asks for blessing in the work of our hands in the coming week, and on Yom Kippur we won’t be working.)

Erev Yom Kippur

Tishrei 9, September 27, Sunday

Kapporos

See Sidur. Men use a rooster and women use a hen; pregnant women use preferably a rooster and two hens. Give the value of the chicken to the poor. If you can't get a chicken, use money and say "Zeh Hakesef Yeilech L'tzedakah".

Some do Kapporos during Aseres Yimei Teshuvah.

During the Ten Days of Teshuvah we give Tzedakah liberally, on Erev Yom Kippur even more so.

At Shacharis we don’t say Mizmor Lisodah, Tachanun or Avinu Malkeinu. (Mizmor Lisodah is in place of the Korban Todah, which wasn’t brought Erev Yom Kippur.)

We ask friends for Lekach (honey cake), and eat it. One reason for this custom is that, were it decreed upon us, Chas V’shalom, to depend on the “gifts of flesh and blood”, we discharge our “obligation” with this.

...My father-in-law, the Rebbe told: 'The Baal Shem Tov would say that giving Lekach (honey cake) on Erev Yom Kippur is an ancient custom, and when he gave it he would say, I give you Lekach, and may HaShem give you a good year, and my father (the Rebbe RaShaB) would add, 'a sweet year'... (Sichah, Erev Yom Kippur, 5711)

It’s a Mitzvah to eat and drink on Erev Yom Kippur as if for two days. It is forbidden to fast. We eat two full meals for which we wash and eat Challah dipped in honey. One meal is before Minchah; Seudah Hamafsek is after. We eat Kreplach. We don’t eat eggs on Erev Yom Kippur.

It’s an obligation to go to the Mikveh. Go before Minchah, after the first meal. (Some go again after Seudah Hamafsek before sundown.)

Before Mikveh we have the custom of Malkos: receiving thirty-nine symbolic “lashes” to remember the need for Teshuvah. Both the one giving and getting Malkos say the thirteen words of “VeHu Rachum” three times, for a total of thirty-nine.

Yom Kippur doesn’t atone for sins against a fellow man, unless we appease him. If we’ve sinned against others, even if only in words, we’re obliged to appease them. We must go personally to them. The injured party should forgive willingly and wholeheartedly.

Minchah

We wear Yom Tov clothes to Minchah. We give a lot of Tzedakah before Minchah. At the end of the Amidah, before “Elokai Nitzor” we say Viduy (Sidur) in the silent Amidah, but not in the Repetition.

We don’t say Tachanun (or Avinu Malkeinu).

After Minchah, we eat the final meal before the fast. We eat only easily digestible food, such as boiled chicken or soup. We don’t eat or drink spicy or salty foods. Finish the meal while it’s still daytime.

Many refined people use only one hand to eat at their meals. On Erev Yom Kippur, they would eat with both hands, (as I saw by my father). (Erev Yom Kippur, 5745, Likutei Sichos Vol. 29, p. 319)

The previous Rebbe said, The first time I was obligated to fast on Yom Kippur, I ate the Seudah Hamafsek (the final meal before the fast) with my father. He said I should have some soup with Challah. He told me to pour a second and third spoonful (or three servings of soup). The soup was without salt; I wanted to pour some into my soup and began to reach for the salt but held back. My father saw this. He said there are many reasons we eat without salt on Erev Yom Kippur and the simple reason is we shouldn't be thirsty, because on Yom Kippur we must not only not eat, but we should not even want to eat or drink. (Sefer Hasichos, Motzei Yom Kippur, 5698)

If you finish quite early, and intend to eat or drink before the fast, make a declaration (or at least have in mind) before Birkas HaMazon, that you're not yet beginning the fast.

Parents bless their children before going to Kol Nidrei.

At candle-lighting we say "Lihadlik Ner Shel Yom Hakippurim" and "Shehechyanu". Although the fast begins at sundown, women and girls who light candles start at the proper candle-lighting time.

We must add to Yom Kippur at its beginning and end: don't delay candle-lighting or going to Mikveh.

Those saying Yizkor light a Yahrtzeit candle at home. If you plan to say Havdalah at home after Yom Kippur, light a 24-hour candle at home.

Every married man brings a 24-hour candle to Shul, to light before Yom Kippur.

It's proper to leave a light on in the master bedroom.

We must honor Yom Kippur with Yom Tov clothes, a Yom Tov tablecloth and candles.

Yom Kippur

Tishrei 10, September 27 - 28, Sunday Night - Monday

The fast of Yom Kippur is (in effect) twenty-six hours. The number of hours corresponds to HaShem's name (gematria twenty six). (Sefer Hasichos, 5705)

(Fasting) part of an hour is considered sufficient. Fasting over twenty-five full hours is adequate. (Likutei Sichos, Vol. 16, p. 522) (The normal schedule of Yom Kippur accomplishes this, since we begin fasting before sunset and continue until over an hour after candle lighting the next evening including Maariv).

Married men after the first year of marriage wear a Kittel. A mourner also wears one. Since it's a garment for Davening, you should remove it before going into a bathroom.

Put on your Tallis and say its Brachah before sunset. We say Viduy privately before Kol Nidrei. We say nine chapters of Tehillim (115-123).

Three Sifrei Torah should be taken out if possible for Kol Nidre.

During Kol Nidre, the Rebbe would hold the first Sefer Torah, and wear the gartel of the Tzemach Tzedek.

After Kol Nidrei the Chazan and congregation say Shehechyanu for Yom Kippur. Begin the Brachah with the Chazan and finish before him, to answer "Amen". Women and girls, who said Shehechyanu at candlelighting, don't say it now.

After Maariv we say the first four chapters of Tehillim, there's a custom to say all of Sefer Tehillim, even if the Minyan had finished saying the Sefer Tehillim, the Rebbe would stay in shul till he himself finished it.

We don't say Tachanun or Viduy in Kriyas Shema before sleep. (Don't forget to say "Baruch Shem" out loud). Say nine chapters of Tehillim (124-132) after Kriyas Shema before "Hamapil".

Five principal restrictions apply on Yom Kippur:

1. Eating/Drinking:

All men and women (even pregnant and nursing) fast. A person who feels ill or requires medication should consult a Rav. Children under nine may not fast. Children nine and above, in good health, should be trained to fast a few hours beyond their regular eating time. Boys of twelve and girls of eleven in good health should fast the whole day. (Even children under nine should be trained to keep the other abstentions.)

2. Wearing shoes:

We may not wear shoes containing any leather or suede. (And thus, we won't say the Brachah "Sheasah Li kol Tzorki", the Brachah on shoes, in the morning.) We may wear leather clothes.

3. Washing:

We may not wash, even with cold water. In the morning, for Negel Vasser, and after using the bathroom, we wash our fingers until the knuckles. If there's dirt on your hands you may wash it off.

4. Anointing:

We may not soak or anoint any part of the body in oil, lotion, perfume or cologne.

5. Family Relations:

Marital relations are forbidden. A couple should conduct themselves as they would during the Nidah time.

Yom Kippur Day

Tishrei 10, September 28, Monday

We wash Negel Vasser up to our knuckles. We don't say the Brachah "Sheasah Li Kol Tzorki". Don't forget to say "Baruch Shem" out loud in the Kriyas Shema before Davening and in Korbanos.

After Kriyas HaTorah is Yizkor. Those whose both parents are living leave the Shul. Someone who is in the first year of mourning stay, but don't say Yizkor. (The mother's name is used.)

At Musaf we do Birchas Kohanim. Kohanim may have their hands washed to their wrists; a Levi whose custom is to wash his own hands before washing the Kohen may do so.

After Musaf, after the daily Tehillim portion, say Tehillim: 133-141.

Chabad custom is to have a break of at least forty-five minutes between Musaf and Minchah.

We leave the Aron Kodesh open all of Neilah. After Neilah we say Tehillim 142-150, completing Sefer Tehillim.

Motzei Yom Kippur Tishrei 10, September 28, Monday

For Maariv we still wear our Tallis and Kittel and put on a hat (instead of a Tallis over our head). Add Atah Chonantanu in the Amidah. If you forget, don't repeat the Amidah, but say "Baruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh Lichol". Women who don't Daven Maariv must say this before they can do any work.

Before Havdalah, wash both hands three times (Negel Vasser) without a Brachah. (Even Kohanim who washed for Birkas Kohanim). Wash your face and rinse your mouth. The flame for Havdalah must have been lit before Yom Kippur (and not used for any other purpose). We may light a candle from a candle lit Erev Yom Kippur.

After Maariv and Havdalah, Kiddush Levana is said.

On Motzei Yom Kippur we wish each other "Gut Yom Tov". We eat and rejoice. It's a partial festival. We dip Challah in honey.

We begin building, or at least discuss building the Sukkah.

The day after Yom Kippur is called "B'shem HaShem". We rise early to go to Shul.

Shlomoh Hamelech dedicated the Beis Hamikdash between Yom Kippur and Sukkos. These are days of rejoicing; we don't fast, even on a Yahrtzeit, or say Tachanun.

Sukkos

Building the Sukkah

It's a Mitzvah to build the Sukkah right after Yom Kippur; when you have an opportunity to perform a Mitzvah, don't let it wait. It's a Mitzvah to make your Sukkah yourself.

Build your Sukkah completely under the open sky, not under overhanging tree branches, awnings, etc. Make the walls strong enough that the wind won't shake them. Chabad custom is to make four complete walls. Canvas walls should be tied down firmly to prevent them from moving (if they do, the Sukkah may not be kosher). Build the walls first, THEN place the S'chach. If you make the roof first and then set up the walls underneath, the Sukkah's not kosher.

The S'chach must have grown from the ground, be detached and be something that can't become Tameh (impure). Use enough S'chach to have more shade than sun. S'chach dries out and becomes thinner; Make sure to use enough. You can add more during Chol HaMoed. Minhag Chabad is to use a lot of S'chach, and not to decorate the Sukkah. You can build a Sukkah during Chol Hamoed.

It's forbidden to use the materials of the Sukkah (walls or roof) until after Simchas Torah. When the Sukkah is dismantled and put away after Sukkos, be careful not to step on its parts, or treat them in a degrading way: they've been used for a Mitzvah.

Check your Eruv before Sukkos. If your Sukkah is on shared property, be certain you have an "Eruv Chatzeiros".

The Four Types (Arba Minim)

Lulav, Esrog, Hadasim and Aravos

This is a short basic guide to purchase and use of the four Minim. They all constitute one Mitzvah, if any of the four aren't kosher, you didn't fulfill the Mitzvah. Buy them from a reliable dealer a G-D fearing person.

The Torah calls the Esrog "Pri Etz Hadar", beautiful in appearance and growth. All four Minim are written in the same Pasuk, so all four should be beautiful in appearance and first choice in quality. Generally, the first thing to check is that top of each is intact and not broken off.

Selecting A Lulav

The minimum size for a Lulav is four Tefachim (at least 13 inches, not counting the leaves extending above the spine itself). It should be fresh, green, and perfectly straight, without any bend or curve in any direction. The leaves shouldn't be separated from each other, but packed tightly together. The top double leaf shouldn't be split or separated. Minhag Chabad is not to have "Kneplach" (a bent tip). When checking the top leaf, follow the spine up with your finger and don't separate the leaves.

The Hadasim

The three branches of Hadasim (myrtle) must be minimally three Tefachim (at least 9.6 inches), not counting the top leaves. They should be fresh and green without any dryness or withering. The top of the branch should be whole and even the top leaves should be whole. The top three leaves, especially, should be fresh and green.

The Hadas grows as a woven network of leaves. It has three leaves growing near each other in a circle, no one leaf lower than the others (this is called Mishulash). Many myrtle branches grow with two leaves on the same level and a third above or below. This isn't a woven network but an unacceptable wild Hadas.

All three branches should be Mishulash the entire required length, or at least a majority of it. If a Hadas was Mishulash and a leaf fell off of each level, (leaving only two leaves on each level), it's still kosher.

The Aravos

The two branches of Aravos must be minimally three Tefachim (at least 9.6 inches) not counting the top leaves. The leaves should be long, the edges of the leaves smooth, and the twig red. The top of the twig and top leaf should be intact. All leaves should be fresh, without dryness or wrinkles. All leaves within the full Shiur of three Tefachim should be present, each leaf whole. If the Aravos are too long, you may cut them. Be careful to cut from the BOTTOM of the branch. If most leaves of the Aravah fell off within its Shiur of three Tefachim, the Aravah is Pasul.

The Esrog

The Esrog should be free of marks, especially the upper portion. The cleaner an Esrog the more Mehudar. It should have many bumps and not be smooth as a lemon. Its stem should be recessed, the Esrog growing around the stem, rather than the stem growing above the surface. Being round like a ball takes away from its beauty. The stem and Pitum should be on the axis; it shouldn't be curved or bent. An Esrog which grew without a Pitum is kosher, an Esrog whose Pitum fell off isn't.

Minhag Chabad is to use "Yanover" (Genovese/Italian) Esrogim (they're grown in Calabria, and called "Yanover" since they're sent from the port of Genoa.)

"...(The Alter Rebbe said) "When HaShem said to Moshe, "Take for yourself a Pri Etz Hadar", they put messengers on a cloud and sent them to bring Esrogim from Calabria (Italy)". (Sefer Haminhagim, p. 65)

The Shiurim are those of R. Avraham Chaim Noeh. Try to have all the Minim BIGGER than their minimum Shiurim.

Preparing The Lulav

We use one Esrog, one Lulav, at least three Hadasim and two Aravos. Some add more Hadasim.. (In 5752 the Rebbe said to add at least three more Hadasim, as a Hidur Mitzvah). We use 5 rings. The Chabad Minhag is to bind the Lulav, Hadasim and Aravos with rings made from a Lulav, and not use a holder. Bind the Hadasim and Aravos to the Lulav with three rings. All three rings should be together within one Tefach (a handbreadth: about three inches). When binding the Hadasim and Aravos, be careful not to detach any leaves. Make sure the Hadasim and Aravos are right side up, the top of the branch towards the top of the Lulav.

Put the other two rings on the Lulav itself, covered by the Hadasim and Aravos (even the top ring, at least somewhat).

Take the Lulav with the spine facing you, place one Hadas and Aravah on the right side, one Hadas and Aravah on the left and one Hadas in the center (leaning slightly to the right). Place the Aravos behind the Hadasim not too conspicuously.

It's a custom to prepare the Lulav in the Sukkah on Erev Yom Tov. It's best to prepare your own Lulav personally.

Parents should train their children to do the Mitzvah of Lulav (and Na'anuim at Hallel) and if possible, try to buy them a Kosher Lulav and Esrog.

The Sukkah

The Mitzvah to dwell in the Sukkah is unique: it's the only Mitzvah, which wholly encompasses a person, from the top of his hat to the soles of his shoes.

In the Sukkah you're Halachically required to reflect on the Sukkah's meaning: It says "Dwell in Sukkos seven days that your generations know that I had Bnei Yisroel dwell in Sukkahs when I took them out of Eretz Mitzrayim." (Vayikra 23:42-43) These Sukkahs were the "Clouds of Glory" which surrounded and shaded them from the scorching sun. HaShem commanded us to make Sukkos for shade, to remember His miracles. When sitting in the Sukkah, have in mind to fulfill the Mitzvah of HaShem to commemorate Yitzias Mitzrayim: the awareness is part of the Mitzvah.

We eat, drink and live in the Sukkah all seven days and nights. Generally, consider the Sukkah as your house; whatever you'd normally do in your house, do in the Sukkah. Chabad custom is not to sleep in the Sukkah.

The Sukkah should be kept neat and clean.

Leisheiv Basukkah

We say "Leisheiv Basukkah" only when we eat a minimum of two ounces of bread, cake or foods, which are Mezonos.

If you forget "Leisheiv Basukkah" before eating, say it when you remember, even if you finished the meal. (Just sit a few more minutes in the Sukkah).

If you leave the Sukkah without having in mind to return within an hour or two, you must say the Brachah before you eat again (even if you return immediately). If you go to another Sukkah, say "Leisheiv Basukkah" again.

Even though only bread or cake must be eaten in the Sukkah, Chabad custom is to eat and drink (even water) only in the Sukkah, throughout Sukkos and Shemini Atzeres. Even small children should be taught to eat in the Sukkah.

Erev Sukkos—Erev Shabbos Tishrei 14, October 2, Friday

It's customary to give Tzedakah generously on Erev Sukkos. We should see to it that all are provided with the necessities of Yom Tov.

Check your Eruv before Sukkos. If your Sukkah is on shared property, be certain you have an "Eruv Chatzeiros".

In the late afternoon don't eat a meal, so you'll eat the meal in the Sukkah at night with a good appetite.

Men go to the Mikveh Erev Yom Tov. Mincha begins as every Erev Shabbos, beginning Hodu and Pasach Eliyahu.

First Night Of Sukkos Tishrei 15, October 2, Friday Night

Women and girls light the candles in the Sukkah. It's important to put the candles in a safe place. (Especially on Shabbos, when they can't be moved). Say Lihadlik Ner Shel Shabbos V'Shel Yom Tov and Shehechyanu. If a family lights many candles and they are afraid it may be dangerous in the Sukkah, before sunset someone who did not bench licht may take most of the candles into the house.

However, at least two candles should be left burning in the Sukkah.

Davening begins with Mizmor L'Dovid and we include the Shabbos inserts in the Shmoneh Esrei for Sholosh Regalim.

Prepare the table so that as soon as you come home from Shul you can say Kiddush in the Sukkah without delay.

Minhag Chabad is not to say the invitation for the Ushpizin.

"Shalom Aleichem," "Eishes Chayil," "Mizmor L'Dovid", and "Askinu Seudosoh" are recited quietly.

We say Kiddush for Yom Tov aloud beginning with Yom Hashishi followed by "Leisheiv Basukkah" and "Shehechyanu" and reciting all of the Shabbos inserts. Wash and make Hamotzi immediately after Kiddush. (It's best to wash near the Sukkah.)

To fulfill the Mitzvah of eating in the Sukkah the first two nights, men must eat at least 1 ounce of Challah in the Sukkah (even if it's raining). This must be done after nightfall, even if you brought Yom Tov in earlier. (Women aren't obligated to sit in the Sukkah, but many have the custom to do so.)

We dip Challah in honey three times. We use honey on Yom Tov and Hoshana Rabah (some use honey on Chol Hamoed too). We put salt on the table; many dip Challah in salt during the meal.

If you forget Yaaleh V'yavoh in Birkas Hamazon on Yom Tov (night or day) repeat it. If you remember in the middle of Birkas Hamazon, see Sidur.

Ushpizin

The Zohar says seven guests, Avraham, Yitzchak, Yaakov, Moshe, Aharon, Yosef and Dovid, grace every Sukkah. They are our Seven Shepherds; each day they visit every Sukkah. Each day has a main guest (first day Avraham, second day Yitzchak, etc.), whom the others accompany.

The previous Lubavitcher Rebbe explained that there are also the Chassidic Ushpizin, the Baal Shem Tov, Mezeritcher Maggid, Alter Rebbe, Mittlerer Rebbe, Tzemach Tzedek, Rebbe MaHaRaSh, and the Rebbe RaShaB.

The first day, the Guest is Avraham, the Chassidic Guest is the Baal Shem Tov. The second day, the main guest is Yitzchak; the Chassidic Guest is the Mezeritcher Maggid. Each night of Sukkos, the Lubavitcher Rebbe, would explain the connection between the Ushpizin of the Zohar and those of Chassidus to that day of Sukkos. From each Guest we learn a lesson in serving HaShem the entire year. You can find this in "Sichos in English."

As we know, every night of Sukkos sees the arrival of the seven ushpizin. Both the ushpizin of the Zohar, and the Chassidic ushpizin that were revealed by our Rebbe. And as is known that this was in a (literal) manner so that "he would indicate with his finger" that here sat the Baal Shem Tov, and here sat the Maggid, etc. The reason for the past tense usage of "sat" is because they told of this after it happened. But as we are now sitting here on the first night of Sukkos, it is obvious that the ushpizin are presently here. (From a sicha of the first night of Sukkos, 5752)

Besides these spiritual guests, we should invite many physical guests to the Sukkah, especially people who are needy, or don't have a Sukkah.

First Day Sukkos Shabbos, Tishrei 15, October 3

We do not bentsh the Lulav. The Lulav and Esrog are muktzah.

The whole Hallel is said during all of Sukkos and on Shmini Atzeres and Simchas Torah.

We say Amidah for Shalosh Regalim with Shabbos inserts for Shacharis and Musaf. Hoshanos are not said on Shabbos We say Birkas Hakohanim.

We say everything for Kiddush for Shabbos through "Al Kein.." quietly and then we say aloud "Eileh mo'adai" etc.

Second Night Sukkos Motzei Shabbos, Tishrei 16, October 3

Vatodianu is said in the Shemoneh Esrei of Maariv.

Women who do not daven Maariv or one who forgot Vatodianu must say "Boruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh L'kodesh" before preparing for the meal or bentshing licht. No preparations for the second day of Sukkos can be done before nightfall.

Candle lighting is in the Sukkah, from a pre-existing flame. Say: L'hadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov and Shehechyanu.

Since Shabbos is over we have to make Havdalah in Kiddush. The correct order to make Kiddush when Yom Tov follows Shabbos is:

Yayen (wine) 'Borei Pri Hagofen'

Kiddush - 'Mekadesh Yisrael V'yom Hazikoron'

Ner - 'Borei Meorei Ha'eish' (Look at the candles when you say this one but not at your fingers)

Havdalah - 'Hamavdil Bein Kodesh L'kodesh'

Z'man - 'Shehechyanu'

Additionally, 'Leshev Basukkah'

We must eat at least a kazayis (1 ounce) of bread in the Sukkah.

Simchas Beis HaShoevah

"...Though it's a Mitzvah to rejoice on all the festivals, there was additional celebration in the Temple on the festival of Sukkos ...On the eve of the first day the festival, they set up a place in the Temple for women (to watch) from above, and men from below, so they wouldn't intermingle with each other.

The celebration would begin the night after the first day of the festival. Similarly, on each day of Chol Hamoed, after offering the daily afternoon sacrifice, they would begin to celebrate for the rest of the day and throughout the night.

“...The flute would be sounded and songs played on the harp, lute, and cymbals ...Each person would play the instrument he knew. Those who could sing would sing. They would dance and clap their hands, letting loose and whistling, each in the manner he knew. They would say words of song and praise...”

It's a great mitzvah to increase this Simchah. The common people would not perform (in these celebrations); only the greatest of Israel's wise men: the Roshei Yeshivos, heads of the Sanhedrin, the pious, the elders, and the men of great deeds, performed. It was they who would dance, clap their hands, sing and rejoice in the Temple on the days of the festival of Sukkos. However, the entire people, the men and the women, would come to see and hear.” (Rambam Hilchos Shofar, Sukkah V'lulav, 8:12-14)

“Whoever didn't see Simchas Beis Hashoevah has never seen rejoicing in his life! ...There were golden menorahs ...There wasn't a courtyard in Jerusalem that wasn't illuminated with the light of Beis Hashoevah.

The pious and men of good deeds would dance before them with torches of fire in their hands and recite songs of praise. The Levites would play the harps, lutes, cymbals, and all other types of instruments on the steps ...leading down from the Israelites' courtyard.” (Mishnah Sukkah, 5:1-2)

“...The custom of the Rebbe the Tzemach Tzedek was that after Maariv of the second night, he would begin to arrange Fabrengens with nigunim and dancing. He would dance so hard that even the young men couldn't keep up with him.” (Sefer Hasichos, 5703, p. 10)

Our disadvantage becomes our advantage: the complete joy of the Simchas Beis Hashoevah, with the flute, and all the instruments began Motzei Yom Tov of the first day since the flute wasn't played on Yom Tov. Today, when the Simchas Beis Hashoevah isn't like in the Beis Hamikdash, with the flute, etc., we can and must begin Simchas Beis Hashoevah immediately on the first night of Sukkos.

Moreover, our disadvantage becomes our advantage, in the participation of all Jews. Since it doesn't have the stature it had in the Beis Hamikdash, everybody can and must participate. Not only through seeing and hearing, but also with actual Simchah and dancing, every single Jew and even children. (Maayanei Hayeshua, p. 44)

Second Day Sukkos Tishrei 16, October 4, Sunday

Rise early to do the Mitzvah of Lulav and Esrog, especially the first time. Men don't eat until they Bentch Lulav. We Bentch Lulav daily, except Shabbos. It's preferable to do it in the Sukkah. The first time, we add “Shehechianu”.

On the first day, by Torah law, (and the second day by Rabbinic law), the four Minim must belong to you. If you borrow a Lulav and Esrog, the lender should say (or have in mind) he's giving it as a temporary gift.

Hold the Lulav in your right hand, the spine facing you.

Remove any rings from your fingers.

Say the Brachah “Al Netilas Lulav”, then pick up the Esrog in your left hand, stem downwards. (The first time you say it say “Shehechianu”.)

Bring your hands together so the Lulav and Esrog touch. (If you're left-handed, hold the Lulav in your left hand and pick up the Esrog in your right.) Make sure there's no separation between your hands and the Lulav and Esrog.

Naanuim (Shaking of the Lulav)

Shake eighteen times, 3 times in six directions.

Here's how:

Face east. Extend your arms to the right (southeast) and shake the Lulav slightly.

Bring the Lulav and Esrog back to your heart, extend them out and back another two times. Shake the Lulav slightly when you stretch out your arms.

Do this, extending and returning:

3 times to the left (northeast),

3 times forward (east),

3 times up,

3 times down (Lulav stem down), and 3 times back (west).

Keep facing east and not the direction you're shaking.

Make sure the Lulav doesn't touch anything as you shake it so you don't damage it.

The Talmud explains: “We wave them back and forth to He Who is Master of the four directions, up and down, to He Who is Master of heaven and earth ...back and forth to restrain harmful winds, up and down to restrain harmful dews.”

Hallel

During Hallel hold the Lulav in the right hand (left for lefties). Before the Naanuim, take the Esrog and hold them together. Do the Naanuim while saying:

1. Hodu LaShem Ki Tov ...

2. Ana HaShem Hoshia Na

3. Ana HaShem Hoshia Na

4. Hodu LaShem Ki Tov ...(first one only)

The first and fourth Pesukim have six words, (and HaShem's name). For each word, (except HaShem's name) shake the Lulav three times in one direction according to pattern. The second and third Pesukim have three words, (and HaShem's name). For each word, (except HaShem's name) shake the Lulav three times in each of two directions according to pattern.

If you said the Brachah on the Lulav after the Amidah, make only three series of movements in Hallel, omitting the one at the repetition of Ana HaShem Hoshia Na.

Hoshanos

After Hallel we say Hoshanos. A Sefer Torah is taken out and the Aron Kodesh remains open. A designated person holds the Sefer Torah and stands at the Bimah. The Chazan says Hoshanos aloud from “Samech” or “Ayin”. We circle the Bimah in a full circle, holding the Lulav and Esrog in both hands so they touch. (A mourner doesn't circle).

Before we recite the Hoshanos of the second day we recite those of the first day, but we only circle the Bimah during the Hoshanos of the current day.

In the Beis Hamikdash, each day of Sukkos, they circled the altar once, carrying Lulavim, saying "Please, HaShem, save us. Please, HaShem, grant us success." (Tehillim 118:25) On the seventh day they circled seven times. We circle the Bimah each day to commemorate the Beis Hamikdash.

At Kiddush by day (see Sidur), say "Leisheiv Basukkah" after Kiddush.

We're obligated to rejoice on Yom Tov. We eat meat; men drink an extra cup of wine, in addition to Kidush.

Regular Havdalah is said (without besomim or candles) in the Sukkah with "Leisheiv Basukkah".

Chol Hamoed

We change Aravos and Hadasim for fresh ones during Chol Hamoed. Make sure they remain kosher; they can be changed more than once.

We don't wear Tefillin. We Daven the weekday Amidah, with Yaaleh V'yavoh. We say Hallel and Hoshanos, followed by Kriyas HaTorah.

If you forget to say Yaaleh V'yavoh during davening, the Amidah must be repeated. If you remember before you finish Amidah, return to Retzeih and continue (see Sidur).

In the Beis Hamikdash, different Korbonos were brought every day of Sukkos for a total of seventy. Thus, each day's Musaf has a different insert; follow the Sidur carefully.

We're obligated to rejoice on Chol Hamoed. We eat meat; men drink an extra cup of wine.

If you forget Yaaleh V'yavoh in Birkas Hamazon, don't repeat it. If you remember before the fourth Brachah (see Sidur).

Sewing, laundering (except baby clothes), haircuts and nail cutting are forbidden.

During Sukkos it's appropriate to increase our efforts to reach out to Jews, even those in distant places and share with them the Mitzvos and happiness of Sukkos (Sukkah, Lulav and Estrog, and Simchas Beis Hasho'eivah). (Tishrei 13, 5752)

Hoshana Rabah

Tishrei 21, October 8-9, Thursday Night - Friday

The world is judged for water on Sukkos, ending on Hoshana Raba. The Zohar describes it as a Judgment Day like Yom Kippur: The judgment of Yom Kippur is sealed, the parchments with the decrees are handed to the angels to deliver. Thus, it has special importance as a day of Tefillah and Teshuvah.

It's customary to stay up the night of Hoshana Raba and read Sefer Devarim. After midnight we say Sefer Tehillim with the Yehi Ratzon for Hoshana Raba in back of Tehillim. There's a custom for the Gabai to distribute apples and honey. We eat them after Tehillim in the Sukkah.

If you're up all night, wash Netilas Yodayim and say Birkos Hashachar. (Igros Kodesh of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Vol. III: 409)

In the Beis Hamikdash every day of Sukkos, they brought willow branches, standing them with their tops bent over the altar. When they arranged them they blew the Shofar: Tekiah, Teruah, Tekiah. To commemorate this, the Prophets instituted taking a bundle of Aravos on Hoshana Raba.

Everyone should get bundles of five Aravos for himself and his family. In the morning, before Hallel, remove the top two rings of the Lulav, leaving only the three binding the Hadasim and Aravos. In Shacharis, we say seven Hoshanos (see Sidur) and circle the Bimah seven times to commemorate the Beis Hamikdash. We don't hold the Aravos when we circle. After Hoshanos and Kaddish, strike the Aravos on the ground five times and say the Yehi Ratzon. The five strikes sweeten the Five Gevuros.

It's a custom to wash and eat a festive meal in the Sukkah today. It's the last day we say "Leisheiv Basukkah" and dip Challah in honey. It's also the last day we say "L'Dovid HaShem Ori".

Shemini Atzeres/Shabbos

Tishrei 22, October 9 - 10, Friday Night - Shabbos

At Mincha we begin with Pasach Eliyahu.

Candle lighting is in the Sukkah. Say: "L'hadlik Ner Shel Shabbos Veyom Tov and Shechehiyanu".

"...The Rebbe RaShaB said "We must treasure the forty-eight hours of Shmini Atzeres and Simchas Torah very much; in every moment we can gather barrels and kegs of physical and spiritual blessings. And this is through the dancing." (Sefer Hamaamarim, 5711 p. 79)

We do Hakafos at night.

"Sholom Aleichem," "Eishes Chayil", "Mizmor L'Dovid", "Askinu Seudossoh" are recited quietly.

We say Kiddush for Yom Tov aloud beginning with Yom Hashishi followed by Shehechiyanu and reciting all of the Shabbos inserts (see Siddur).

Minhag Chabad is to eat in the Sukkah by night and day. Don't say "Leisheiv Basukkah"
We dip Challah in salt and not honey.

Yizkor is after Kriyas HaTorah.

Before Musaf the Gabai announces "Morid Hageshem". If you say "Morid Hatal" instead of "Mashiv Haruach Umorid Hageshem", don't repeat the Amidah. We say the Prayer for Rain in the Musaf repetition.

We say everything for Kiddush for Shabbos through "Al Kein." quietly and then we say aloud the posuk "Eileh mo'adai..." etc.

On Shemini Atzeres we finish ChiTaS for Vizos Habrachah, and we're Maavir the Sedra.

Towards evening we eat in the Sukkah one last time. It's not our custom to kiss the Sukkah when we leave for the last time, nor do we say a Yehi Ratzon.

In terms of the Ushpizin of the Zohar, and the Chassidic Ushpizin, of the holiday of Sukkos, it follows that Shemini Atzeres is connected with Shlomo Hamelech and the previous Rebbe. (Maayanei Hayeshua, p. 201)

Simchas Torah Night

Tishrei 23, October 10, Motzei Shabbos

Vatodianu is said in the Shemoneh Esrei of Maariv. Women who do not daven Maariv or one who forgot Vatodianu must say "Boruch Hamavdil Bein Kodesh L'kodesh" before preparing for the meal or bentching licht. No preparations for Simchas Torah can be done before night-fall.

We make seven Hakafos. We don't read the Torah at night.

Since Shabbos is over we have to make Havdalah in Kiddush. The correct order to make Kiddush when Yom Tov follows Shabbos is as follows:

"YaKNeHaZ" is an easy way to remember the order:

Yayen (wine) 'Borei Pri Hagofen'

Kiddush - 'Mekadesh Yisrael V'yom Hazikoron'

Ner - 'Borei Meorei Ha'eish' (Look at the candles when you say this one but not at your fingers)

Havdalah - 'Hamavdil Bein Kodesh L'kodesh'

Z'man - 'Shehechiyanu'

"...The time of Simchas Torah, particularly before Hakofos, was always an auspicious time for my sainted father-in-law, the Rebbe. As such, also those who have several times asked for a particular brocha, for a need that has yet to be fulfilled, may now obtain its fulfillment.

Therefore, let them take mashke, and say "L'chaim" to the Rebbe, and take upon themselves a particular commitment to strengthen their ties with him, and through this all matters will be achieved. (From a Sicha of Simchas Torah 5711)

"...My father (the Rebbe Rashab) said, "On Simchas Torah, every minute is a year." (Sefer Hasichos 5702, p. 9)

On Simchas Torah all the gates of heaven are open, the gates of light, blessing, success, and all other gates. And one receives from them through Torah. (Sefer Hasichos 5709, p. 59)

Simchas Torah with the Ba'al Shem Tov

"...The Alter Rebbe said the first time the Baal Shem Tov spoke with his students about Simchas Torah he said: In general, on Simchas Torah, Jews sleep in a bit, because of the Hakafos and Seudas Yom Tov. The angels, however, don't have that Avodah, so they get up early, as usual. They want to sing the Shirah, but without Jewish souls they can't. They go to storm the Gan Eden.

Suddenly they find things there that they don't recognize: shoes and slippers, and they're very surprised. They're used to Tzitzis, Tefillin—but not slippers. They go off to ask the Angel Michoel, who answers that this is his merchandise: it's from Jewish dancing with the Torah. He starts counting slippers: these are from Kaminka, these are from Mezeritch... And in this the Angel Michoel prides himself over the Angel Metatron, who ties crowns for his Creator from the prayers of Israel, while he, the Angel Michoel, makes a better crown, from the torn slippers of Simchas Torah dancing." (Sefer Hasichos 5701, p. 31-32, the Rebbe elaborated on this story thirty years later Shabbos Bereishis 2nd Farbrengen 5731)

Simchas Torah Day

Tishrei 23, October 11, Sunday

We do Birkas Kohanim in Shacharis. Before Kriyas HaTorah we circle the Bimah three and a half times and say seven Hakafos. Everyone gets an Aliyah, even boys under Bar Mitzvah.

On Simchas Torah we begin ChiTaS, learning Bereishis.

On Simchas Torah, the Rebbe, stressed the importance of setting times for learning especially of Rambam and ChiTaS, as we begin a new cycle of Chumash.

Motzei Simchas Torah

"...In Lubavitch they used to announce after Simchas Torah: "And Yaakov went on his way". (Likutei Sichos: Vol. 9, p. 398)

Once in Liozna Motzei Simchas Torah they announced the time for Maariv, and they started Vehu Rachum. The Alter Rebbe said they should not yet daven Maariv because his Mechutan (Rabbi Levi of Berditchiv) did not yet finish Minchah and in the heavens they are waiting for Rabbi Levi's Vehu Rachum. Even though this is not our Seder we have to start with his Mechutan's Vehu Rachum. (Simchas Torah, 5705 (1944) p. 63)

(In terms of the Chassidic Ushpizin of Sukkos, since Shemini Atzeres is connected with the previous Lubavitcher Rebbe, it follows that Simchas Torah is connected with the Rebbe.)

Isru Chag/Tishrei 24, October 12, Monday

It's customary not to fast, and to eat a better meal than usual.

We don't say Tachanun for the rest of Tishrei.

Shabbos Bereishis/Shabbos Mevorchim Marcheshvan Tishrei 29, October 17

We say Sefer Tehillim before Shacharis and bless the month. We don't say "Av Harachamim" at Shacharis or "Tzidkosecha" at Minchah.

"...It's known the saying of the Rebbeim that the way we set ourselves up on Shabbos Bereishis so goes the whole year" (Likutei Sichos: Vol. 1, p. 1)

The announcement of "And Yaakov went on his way" is announced again on Motzoei Shabbos.

SIMCHAS TORAH BY THE REBBEIM

The Rebbe Just Thought of Me

Each year, when the month of Tishrei approached, Rabbi Pinchas Reizes would leave his home in the town of Shklov and travel to the Alter Rebbe, Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi, to spend the festivals with his Rebbe.

One year, Reb Pinchas was unable to make the trip due to ill health. As he sat in his Sukkah on Shemini Atzeret, he suddenly cried out, “Oh Rebbe!” To those present he explained, “The Rebbe just thought of me.”

When the local chassidim who had made the trip to the Rebbe returned to Shklov, they reported that on Shemini Atzeret, as the Rebbe sat in the Sukkah, he suddenly mentioned Reb Pinchas and wished him a speedy recovery. Further investigation revealed that this was at the precise moment that Reb Pinchas had been aware that the Rebbe was thinking of him.

Reb Pinchas now faced serious charges. How dare a chassid presume to exhibit supernatural abilities?

“It’s not me,” explained Rabbi Pinchas. “The first time I came to the Rebbe, I gave him my nefesh (vital soul). The second time I came to him my ruach (emotional soul). The third time, I handed over my neshamah (intellectual soul). It is not I who was aware of the Rebbe’s concern for me – my entire self is there, by the Rebbe.” (Told by the Rebbe on Tishrei 24, 5727/October 8, 1966).

Simchas Yom Tov

Simchas Torah 5676 (1815) the Rebbe the Tzemach Tzedek danced a great deal, even the healthiest of the young men couldn’t keep up with him. Many fell down, and my great-grandfather kept dancing, and as he danced he would announce, “Dance, Yidden dance, enjoy yourselves with the simcha of the Torah, and in its merit you will merit life, children, and broad sustenance.”

The Rebbitzin Chaya Musia entered the room of her father, the Mittler Rebbe, and complained that he, the holy Tzemach Tzedek her husband, was wearing out the chasidim with his dancing. To her father, the Rebbe, she said, “You should have seen how he is out of himself. My grandfather the Alter Rebbe, told me that he has broad senses (chushim) his intellectual powers is broad and great.”

The Mittler Rebbe answered her, “By him, the Tzemach Tzedek, is now illuminating the light of the simcha of the Torah like it shone in the Beis Hamikdash...”

The night after Simchas Torah the Tzemach Tzedek used to change into another Kapote, because the first one was soaked with sweat and torn. When the grandfather, the Tzemach Tzedek, would go into his special room, the Mittler Rebbe’s great chasidim would get pieces of the torn coat as a Segulah for success in Torah and Avodah. (Sefer Hasichos 5703, p. 11)

Hakofos - With New Credit

On Simchas Torah, 5648 (1887) the Rebbe RaShab was honored with the first Sefer Torah for the first Hakofah and the Rebbe said he was not yet ready. The Rebbe called over a chassid, Reb Yaakov Schneur, who was a jobber, and he asked him, “How does jobbing work? And the chassid answered, “I supply merchandise on credit. I bring the merchandise from the big city and give it to the retailers “Behakofah”, on credit. Once they pay for the previous merchandise he gives them the new merchandise ‘Behakofah’.”

Then the Rebbe said, “After our payment with the service of the month of Elul, the days of Selichos, the two days of Rosh Hashanah, Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, Yom Kippur, Sukkos, Shemini Atzeret, etc... then we can go to Hakofos with new credit.” (Simchas Torah 5705 (1944) p. 57)
